Guests present: Fred Wheaton, Supervisor, Gene Raymond, Supervisor & Mark Wheaton, Supervisor

Meeting was called to discuss the role that the commission can play in coming years on a variety of projects under the direction of the township supervisors.

Following the Pledge of Allegiance, the supervisors stressed that they are interested in working more closely with the committee on several projects for the community.

They presented ideas on a variety of projects, including:

Website- Create and maintain an information source including an events calendars.

Township Park- located at the present Community Center and walking trail. Possibly improve the façades of the gaming booths in an old-fashioned town motif. Also extend walking trail.

Litter pickup day

New road signs

Path through the game lands

Funding through grants may be available for some projects. The commission is to consider these ideas and create a project list with estimated cost and feasibility. This is then to be presented to the supervisors for direction.

As there was no further old or new business, a motion to adjourn was made by Larry Loveland, seconded by Scott Williams, and approved. The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

The next meeting is to be held on May 27, 2008 at 7:00 p.m. at the Warren Township Community Building.
